

The Chatham Community Players

CELEBRATES ITS 90TH SEASON!

1922-2012

BUG BY Tracy Letts

OCTOBER 14 -29, 2011 Tortured by the kidnapping of her child from a supermarket years ago and victimized by her abusive ex-husband, Agnes drifts along in a world of alcohol, cocaine and seedy motel rooms before she meets Peter, a Gulf War veteran with a penchant for conspiracies. As their interest in each other grows, so does their paranoid obsession with understanding what - or who - brought them together. Did we mention the infestation of bugs? From the playwright of August: Osage County, this play is shocking, raw and fun in its insanity. DIRECTED BY BOB PRIDHAM

RABBIT HOLE, 2010

The Grapes of Wrath by Frank Galati from the novel by John Steinbeck

MARCH 2 - 17, 2012 A powerful and deeply affecting stage version of one of the masterpieces of American literature. Holding to the simplicity and directness of the original novel, the play uses the sparsest of technical means to convey its timeless message of the persistence and strength of the human spirit as it battles against the adversities of nature and an uncaring society. "THE GRAPES OF WRATH is a lesson in history, stagecraft, and truth that we cannot afford not to learn." -NY Magazine. DIRECTED BY FRANK LICATO

BEYOND THERAPY, 2011

CABARET

BOOK BY JOE MASTEROFF
MUSIC BY JOHN KANDER
LYRICS BY FRED EBB

MAY 4 - 19, 2012 "Willkommen, bienvenue, welcome" to Berlin's Kit Kat Klub, says the Master of Ceremonies. Headlining singer Sally Bowles meets the American Cliff, and as Nazi Germany takes hold across the country and beyond, Sally and Cliff are left to deal with their own unusual relationship. Based partly on an original Christopher Isherwood novel, Cabaret brilliantly puts a personal perspective on perhaps the most significant historical period in the modern world. DIRECTED BY JEFFREY FIORELLO
